CONGREGATIONAL HYMN

I WILL TRUST IN THE LORD

I will trust in the Lord,
I will trust in the Lord,
I will trust in the Lord till I die.
I will trust in the Lord,
I will trust in the Lord,
I will trust in the Lord till I die.

I'm gonna treat everybody right ,
I'm gonna treat everybody right ,
I'm gonna treat everybody right ,
I'm gonna stay on bended knee till I die.
I'm gonna treat everybody right ,
I'm gonna treat everybody right ,
I'm gonna stay on bended knee till I die.

I will trust in the Lord,
I will trust in the Lord,
I will trust in the Lord till I die.
I will trust in the Lord,
I will trust in the Lord,
I will trust in the Lord till I die.

I'm gonna stay on bended knee,
I'm gonna stay on bended knee,
I'm gonna stay on bended knee till I die.
I'm gonna stay on bended knee,
I'm gonna stay on bended knee,
I'm gonna stay on bended knee till I die.

I will trust in the Lord,
I will trust in the Lord,
I will trust in the Lord till I die.
I will trust in the Lord,
I will trust in the Lord,
I will trust in the Lord till I die.

Responsive Reading – Psalms 127:1-5

- (L) Unless the Lord builds the house, the builders labor in vain.
Unless the Lord watches over the city, the guards stand watch in vain.
- (P) 2 In vain you rise early and stay up late, toiling for food to eat for he grants sleep to[a] those he loves.
- (L) 3 Children are a heritage from the Lord, offspring a reward from him.
- (P) 4 Like arrows in the hands of a warrior are children born in one's youth.
- (ALL) 5 Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them. They will not be put to shame when they contend with their opponents in court.

Psalms 127:1-5 × "A House Is Not A Home"

MZLA SUMMER SERMON-SERIES

Thesis:

Families can develop a deeper love, stronger faith, and a luster that serves as a testament to His kindness when God transforms a house into a home.

Objective:

Finding the right balance between guidance and grace is crucial for helping families develop a genuine understanding of God's character.

Incessant pretentious vanity vv.1-2

- _____ in vain
- _____ in vain
- _____ in vain

Inherent virtuous values vv.3-5

- _____ from God
- _____ from God
- _____ because of God

Kennedy's KNotes

- 1. An unpretentious love for God is not defined by mere emotion, but by active, sacrificial obedience.
- 2. A child identifies his parents with God, whether or not the adults want that role. Most children 'see' God the way they perceive their parents/fathers.

We Outside...

Part 1: Incessant Pretentious Vanity (Verses 1-2)

No Cap - Recap

This section contrasts our cultural obsession with control and self-made success with the reality that human effort is futile without God's foundation.

Working in Vain:

- What are some "houses" (e.g., careers, social status, perfect homes) that you find yourself exhausting energy to build for your family?
- What is one practical way your family can invite God into your daily schedules and career goals this week?

Watching in Vain:

- How does the illusion of total control over our children's environments affect our stress levels and our families?
- When have you experienced the "watchman" breaking down—meaning you realized your own vigilance wasn't enough to protect your kids?

Worrying in Vain:

- How does the "bread of anxious toil" manifest in your household (e.g., irritability, sleeplessness, relational distance)? Verse 2 says God "gives sleep to His beloved."
 - Can you share a specific time when you surrendered a heavy family burden to God and experienced His unexpected peace or provision?

Inherent Virtuous Values (Verses 3-5)

No Cap - Recap

This section pivots to the gifts of God, viewing children not as burdens to be managed but as a rich reward and powerful legacy.

Heritage from God:

- What are the core spiritual values or traditions you most want to hand down to your children as their generational inheritance?
 - How can you nurture the unique identity God has given each of your children, rather than shaping them according to societal expectations?

Helpers from God:

- What are you actively equipping your children to "strike" at in this world?
- What are the biggest distractions or obstacles you face in keeping your children "aimed" toward God's purposes?

Happiness Because of God:

- How does a strong, godly family unit provide a firm foundation and security in a chaotic world?
- What are some specific daily habits that bring genuine joy and connection into your family life?
